Technological partner of reference of the largest international companies, ALTEN has become in 20 years the leading European provider of engineering and technology consultancy. Over 15,950 employees (including 88% engineers) – present in 15 countries – Revenues of €1 198.0 M.

ITEKNA Polska is an ALTEN Group company, Europe’s leading Engineering and Technology Consultancy (ETC) company, and is involved in R&D projects in major corporations. We provide high value added engineering services, being at the core of our client’s innovation process in various industry sectors.

Junior Software Development Engineer .NET

Workplace: Warszawa

Job Description:
For our client in the travel industry we are looking for a Junior Software Development Engineer .NET

Main tasks:

 Develop solutions as specified by the Solutions Engineer and Business Analysts (Specification document) to answer customer requirements;
 Provide development assistance services (including training) to Regional Delivery Centers and customers willing to develop tools;
 Participate to the pre sales activity, designing with functional consultant the proposed solution;
 Provide development expertise to build solutions with the Regional product portfolio, integrated with the customer systems, operating environment and business practices;
 Provide consulting services to review and assess the feasibility of a specific customized development;
 Maintain the customized developments once delivered to the customer;
 Follow Professional Services procedure allowing the solution to be reused and maintained.

Requirements:

 Very good understanding of Object Oriented programming concepts;
 Basic Knowledge of .Net Development environment;
 Knowledge of the main design patterns;
 Knowledge of UML;
 Fluent English language.

We offer:

 Individual approach to each employee;
- Possibility to choose type of contract;
- Benefit package (MultiSport card, private medical care);
- Work in an international environment and global projects;
- Stable and long-term cooperation;
- Social events;
- Referral program;
- Relocation support.

If you are interested, please send your CV to: career@itekna.com