

Middle .NET Developer

About the Role

Customer is a company within the credit management services industry operating in Europe. You will work in a multicultural environments with talented colleagues in several European countries both on-site and when going to business trips.

Project portfolio includes various mid- and long-term projects of development and maintenance of financial software: collection and invoicing management, data warehouse, communications, etc. Most of applications are developed on Microsoft stack of technologies.

Main Responsibilities

Design and develop new service components with responsibility for the full development life cycle

Perform unit testing

Refactor existing modules toward enhanced architecture

Coordinate technical activities and documentation throughout each project

Requirements

2-3 years' experience in software engineering as a .NET developer

Experience in web development

Extensive knowledge of .NET 3.5/4.0, ASP.NET, and C# (Web Services)

Good knowledge of MVC, SOAP, jQuery, AJAX, LINQ, HTML, CSS, and unit testing

Knowledge of SQL, experience with Microsoft SQL Service is a plus

Knowledge of software development methodology and software lifecycle processes, especially Agile (Scrum)

Good knowledge of source code control systems

Experience with financial solutions is a plus

Bachelor or MSc degree in computer science, math, or related field

Advanced written and oral English

Excellent verbal and written communication skills

Self-driven personal approach and passion for helping others

A positive and resilient mindset and high stress tolerance