

Middle JavaScript Developer

About the Role

Customer is a large debt collection and debt purchase company. You will work in a multicultural environments with talented colleagues in several European countries both on-site and when going to business trips.

Main Responsibilities

Reengineering of specific custom developed financial software by modern JavaScript technologies

Supporting migration to the new version

New functionality development

Communication with customer's business departments and test team

Requirements

2+ years of experience in software engineering as JavaScript developer (UI is not required)

Good analytical skills

SQL knowledge (select, update, insert)

Ability to learn

Advanced written and spoken English, German

Excellent verbal and written communication skills

Ability to travel to the following countries (if required): Germany